

"I WILL AND I CAN"

BATCH PROFILES

JAI HIND COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS)

EMPOWERING THE LEADERS OF TOMORROW

BACHELOR OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES (BMS)

Bachelor of Management Studies (BMS) is a three-year undergraduate program that offers advanced studies in the field of management that are necessary to run an organization efficiently. It provides an impetus to students for entrepreneurial training with emphasis on practical aspects of Management

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Management Studies program comprises a fruitful batch of 124 students.

SUBJECTS

In the three years of the program, our students have studied 40 subjects such as Accounting, Marketing, Business Law, Corporate Finance, Design Thinking, Entrepreneurship, Economics, Strategic Management etc.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

Students have attended a wide array of masterclasses, seminars and the concoction of various courses, with the blend of wisdom from one of the finest management faculty in the city makes students stand out in a crowd.

CO-CURRICULARS

BMS Students organize Talaash, the biggest management festival in Mumbai, Global E-Summit under the E-Cell and Skill Hub, and take up leadership roles and work towards the Incubator and Accelerator Centre and the Case study Cohort.

INTERSHIPS

Internships have been taken up by students in sales and marketing, financial management, accounting, operations, Project and enterprise Management, human resource management and entrepreneurship.

ADD. COURSES

Students have taken several certified courses like the Foundational Course in Entrepreneurship, Financial Markets, Social Media Marketing Course by IIDE and a Risk Mitigation Workshop by IRM.

SKILL SET

The course and the events have helped to hone their managing and public speaking skills while they also simultaneously build connections with professionals. They have acquired skill sets like strategic thinking and decision making.

BACHELOR OF ACCOUNTING & FINANCE (BAF)

The Bachelor of Accounting and Finance (BAF) course is a comprehensive three-year graduate program that provides professional education for those who wishing to pursue their career in the fields of accounting and finance.

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Accounting and Finance program comprises of a fruitful batch of 63 students. .

SUBJECTS

To enable students to cater to a niche requirement in the industry of finance, audit, private equity, venture capital, students study subjects like accountancy, financial markets, equity, taxation, cost accounting, corporate finance, etc.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

Students have attended sessions on International Risk Management, Fin Tech, Behavioral Finance, Investment banking, data science, brand marketing, blockchain, startup investing.

CO-CURRICULARS

The department comprises of various student-led clubs such as Entourage, Endeavour Editorial Club, Bazaar (A Financial Newspaper), The Societal Bridge, In Tune In Touch (newsletter) and Concourse (A Speakers' Committee).

INTERSHIPS

The students have worked in numerous departments of accounting, finance, marketing content creation, taxation, HRM and business development

ADD. COURSES

The department conducts various courses on the Basics of Stock Market, Islamic Banking, International Risk Management, Fin Tech, Behavioral Finance and Technical Analysis.

SKILL SET

Students have strong analytical skills and a solid grounding in all aspects of commerce. Further, they have excellent accounting skills, and many of them are also proficient in financial markets.

BACHELOR OF BANKING AND INSURANCE (BBI)

It is a 3- year comprehensive degree that provides students an outlook about Banking services, Insurance in India and its different products, introduction to financial markets, different channels of Investment and their detailed study, detailed understanding of Management and Corporate accountancy, Concepts of taxation and Auditing, Legal understanding of different act concerning Monetary topics and policies.

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Banking and Insurance program comprises a fruitful batch of 66 students.

SUBJECTS

During the program, students study subjects like Corporate Accounting, Business Law, Research Methodology, Audit, Financial Markets, Investment Banking, Portfolio management, Life Insurance, etc.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

Students attend various sessions as the curriculum is taught with the help of projects, case studies, moot courts, and industrial visits apart from discussions and debates, case studies and paper presentations, in addition to the conventional chalk-and-talk method.

CO- CURRICULARS

Students take part in Entourage (Business&Finance based academic inter-collegiate event), Concourse (speaker's committee), Endeavour (Editorial Club), Bazaar (financial newspaper), In Tune In Touch (departmental newsletter), Societal Bridge (social events), Financial Cell.

INTERSHIPS

The students have worked in numerous departments of accounting, finance, marketing, research, investment, taxation and business development

ADD. COURSES

Students have attended sessions on International Risk Management, Fin Tech, Behavioral Finance, Investment banking, data science, brand marketing, blockchain, startup investing, Islamic Banking, basics of the stock market etc.

SKILL SET

The program enables students to possess strong analytical skills and solid grounding in commerce and equips them to pursue careers in Commercial, Retail, Investment Banking, Insurance , Actuary, Risk Management, Mergers and Acquisitions.

BACHELOR OF FINANCIAL MARKETS (BFM)

The Bachelors of Financial Markets (BFM) course is a comprehensive 3-year full-time undergraduate program fabricated to cater to students who want to learn about and make a career in the financial markets and related roles.

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Financial Markets program comprises a fruitful batch of 65 students.

SUBJECTS

The course consists of 38 modules of 100 marks each & 2 projects of 100 marks each. Students study subjects like Corporate Accounting, Business Law, Business Research, Equity, Commodities & Derivative Markets.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

The students attend sessions, workshops and attain skills that are technically, theoretically and practically germane to finance in addition to courses that ensue in their holistic development.

CO-CURRICULARS

Students take part in Entourage (Business&Finance based academic inter-collegiate event), Concourse (speaker's committee), Endeavour Editorial Club, Baazaar (financial newspaper), In Tune In Touch (departmental newsletter), Societal Bridge (social events), Financial Cell.

INTERSHIPS

The students have interned in various roles of finance, marketing, human resource management, operations, research, business development, content creation etc.

ADD. COURSES

Students have attended sessions on International Risk Management, Fin Tech, Behavioral Finance, Investment banking, blockchain, startup investing, Islamic Banking, basics of stock market etc.

SKILL SET

While developing a unique skill set that makes them proactive, competent and motivated to explore new experiences, students are skilled in Financial Research & Analysis, Personal Finance, Strategic Thinking, Decision Making, etc.

BACHELOR OF MASS MEDIA (BMM)

The Bachelor of Mass Media (BMM) program provides an outlook into the spheres of media and communication encompassing the understanding of humanities and the society. The students have holistic knowledge of the usage of communication.

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Mass Media program comprises a fruitful batch of 124 students.

SUBJECTS

The major subjects taught include Mass Communication, Sociology, Principles of Marketing, Journalism, Cinema Public Relations, Media planning & buying, Ad ethics, Photography, Editing, Brand Building, Copywriting, etc.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

Attended various sessions related to media management, media buying and selling, journalism and what makes the students stand out is an understanding of media and communication through micro and macro perspectives.

CO-CURRICULARS

Students from this program organize Detour, an annual Multicultural Festival as well as Constellation, a Media Conclave.

INTERSHIPS

Students have interned in the fields of Content and creative Writing, Social Media Marketing, Video & Graphic Editing, cinematography and Assistance on film sets, Animation, Sound editing and VFX.

ADD. COURSES

The course organises several media related credit courses ranging from editing to digital marketing to enable students to gain the ability to apply the creative inputs in real-time manifestation.

SKILL SET

Students possess various skills like strategy, creative brainstorming & creating media products, media planning, marketing, branding and will be enabled to pursue careers in a wide range of fields.

BACHELOR OF COMMERCE (B.COM)

Since 1980, the department has played a pivotal role to shape the careers of commerce students in the various fields of Business Management, Administration, Marketing & Finance. Along with theoretical learning an equal emphasis is given to impart practical exposure of students to the emerging areas of their interest

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Commerce program comprises a fruitful batch of 347 students.

SUBJECTS

Students from the program study business management and basic and advanced accountancy, Advertising, marketing, business communication, economics, etc with the help of experiential exercises.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

Expert guest lectures on various topics under Business and Administration is conducted which brings forth knowledge in marketing, advertising, building start-up, various accounting policies and procedures.

CO-CURRICULARS

Students take up case studies, management and accounting discussions, and advertisement analysis, etc during the program as well.

INTERSHIPS

Students have interned in marketing, finance, business development, sales, human resource management.

ADD. COURSES

Students attend the Wadhvani Foundation Elementary and Advanced Entrepreneurship courses and are also members of the Accountancy and Economics Association which involves their active participation.

SKILL SET

Some of the attributes that make any commerce student stand out are the readiness to learn and adapt, confidence, entrepreneurial mindset, communication skills and goal driven mentality.

BACHELOR OF ARTS (BA)

The Bachelor of Arts is a 3 Year undergraduate comprehensive degree. Students under this degree can pursue specialization in the respective subject. BA specialization includes BA English, BA Economics, BA History, BA Psychology. A bachelor's degree in Arts provides more diverse career opportunities and concentrates on a broad range of concepts. A bachelors degree in Arts helps to focus more on emotional intelligence and interpersonal skills.

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Arts program comprises a fruitful batch of 220 students.

SUBJECTS

Students study different subjects across all the departments. These include economics, political science, history, English, psychology, philosophy, sociology, etc.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

Students get to attend various Life skills and Research methodology seminars conducted by the department to familiarize students with myriad contemporary issues and recent research work.

CO-CURRICULARS

Students organise festivals like Economics symposium, Arthanomics, Psychinsight and publish magazines such as Contrarian and Espectro psychology. They participate in Seminars,skills workshops . History Association talks, Political science forum, Inter-collegiate Youth parliament, International Relation course, Indian cultural heritage course, Economics convention and other national and state level research paper competition, debates and quizzes competitions.

INTERSHIPS

Our students intern at various organisations like Niti Aayog, Think Tanks like the Observer Research Foundation (ORF), Gateway House, Heritage and conservation organisations, Museums, Art Galleries , advertising agencies. Theatre, NGOs and Digital Marketing and media firms. They perform various roles such as research assistantship, public policy related internships, analysts, content specialist and in data collection and analysis, clinical counselling, script writing and human resource planning. They are exposed to practical application of different concepts via experiments and researches.

ADD. COURSES

The department conducts various courses like research methods and international relations and they are introduced to various courses of Humanities as well.

SKILL SET

The holistic program and participation in other activities helps the students to upskill their way of communication, team building, leadership qualities, strategic thinking, in depth research and analytical skills, public speaking and writing skills. They learn to work with ethics and values. And get an opportunity to gain experiential knowledge.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (BSC)

The Bachelor's of Science (BSc) is a three year full-time undergraduate program that prepares a student for the academia and industrial prospects. This program gives a hands on experience on research, lab skills, instrument handling, experimentation and builds a scientific temperament in the students.

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Science program comprises a fruitful batch of 240 students.

SUBJECTS

Curriculum covers subjects like Life Sciences, Chemistry, Botany, Mathematics, Microbiology, Physics , and Biotechnology.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

Workshops with Eppendorf regarding cell culture and quality control and talks with eminent research personalities organized by Research Hub of Jai Hind College.

CO-CURRICULARS

Departments organize IRIS ( Insight, Resilient, Innovate, Success) and GENESIS which comprises of workshops, seminars and competitions. Departmental magazines like Catalyst ( Life Sciences department) & Eureka (Physics Department) .

INTERSHIPS

The students have interned for IVF in E-ART where they have got a hands on experience. They have also done work in Ree labs regarding stem cells and completed a two month long internship in IWSA.

ADD. COURSES

Departments organize courses like Biohacking the Brain, Data science, Astronomy to learn about the current topics. Certificate course in collaboration with FACTS on Forensic Science gives an enriching experience to the students.

SKILL SET

Data Analysis & interpretation , Research projects, Usage of Programming software, Operating bioinformatics software, Lab skills, Specimen collection and analysis, Instrument handling are the major skills that the students possess.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE- IT (BSC-IT)

The degree is a comprehensive course that involves the study of Artificial intelligence, Machine Learning, Cloud Computing, Mobile App Development, Software development, Software testing, Software Engineering, Web designing, Databases, Latest Programming languages. The international collaboration with University of Fraser Valley extends to students an in-depth learning opportunity and exposure to pursue higher studies.

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Science in Information Technology program comprises a fruitful batch of 64 students.

SUBJECTS

The department of BSc IT, established in 2013, strives to shape computer professionals of the future. The curriculum focuses on work readiness skills in each of the three years.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

The students attend various sessions in the field of software development, Artificial Intelligence, Cloud Computing, Big Data and many more.

CO-CURRICULARS

Students are a part of Dot Com Club, Gymkhana and are able to explore career alternatives prior to graduation, integrate theory and practice, assess interests and abilities in their field of study.

INTERSHIPS

Students have been doing internships related to their skills subject viz Website Development, Software Engineer, Software Developer, Android App Development, Graphics Designing,

ADD. COURSES

Few glimpses of seminar courses are-Latest trends in Android Application Development, Hands on workshop on IOT with Arduino, Challenges in digital forensics and career options, etc.

SKILL SET

Software Developer (JAVA, Dot Net Programming, Machine Learning, Artificial Intelligence, Python Programming), Web Developer (HTML, CSS, Javascript, PHP, Dot Net ),etc.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE-BIOTECH (BSC-BT)

During the program, the students will develop an analytical and logical approach with updated practical skills that will enable to build careers in Food, Pharma, and FMCG Industries, Clinical Trial for drugs and vaccines, Law and regulatory affairs, Quality and Management fields, Scientific writing and editing, Research sectors, in Bio Entrepreneurial ventures.

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Science in Biotechnology program comprises a fruitful batch of 27 students.

SUBJECTS

The program is designed to acquaint and learn recent trends in the fields of Pharma, Diagnostics, Nano science, Endocrinology and Reproductive technologies, Toxicology, Cell bio and Cancer studies, Conservation biology, etc.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

The student attend sessions to develop an analytical and logical approach to build careers in Food, Pharma, and FMCG Industries, Clinical Trial for drugs and vaccines, Law and regulatory affairs, Bio Entrepreneurial ventures, etc.

CO-CURRICULARS

Biotechnology department organises GENESIS every year which comprises of competitors, seminars, workshops, etc. They have also organised workshops with Eppendorf regarding cell culture and quality control.

INTERSHIPS

The students have interned for IVF in E-ART, Ree labs regarding stem cells. in IWSA and they have also done observer ship in SRCC hospital Microbiology Lab and Candy Breach hospital.

ADD. COURSES

The labs are well furnished and the wide array of experiments encourages the young scientist in the students. A number of webinars and seminars are held to expose the students to actual scientific work and the industrial world.

SKILL SET

The Program focuses on latest trends in the field with a very practical component which enables student to be industry ready; the focus being on inculcation of research culture and entrepreneurial ventures.

BACHELOR OF VOCATION- SD (BVOC-SD)

B.Voc or Bachelor of Vocational Studies in Software Development is an undergraduate program which is of 3-year duration. This program improves the skills of the candidates by concentrating on practical training as well as theoretical knowledge.

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Vocation- SD program comprises a fruitful batch of 28 students.

SUBJECTS

During the program, students study C++, DBMS, Logics & algorithm, Web development, python programming and data structures, big Data analytics, AI physical computing and T programming, etc.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

Various sessions are conducted on how to use and build software to enable students to comprehend and apply in real time manifestation.

CO-CURRICULARS

The science exhibition titled: XPLORE, Dot Com Club, CyberStrike event( drone making, hackathon, debate, quiz, gaming competitions) witness an active participation of students from the program.

INTERSHIPS

Students take up web developer internships at companies and startups like Ridobiko solutions and graphic design internships.

ADD. COURSES

The department conducts various swayam courses and courses from udemy, coursera, etc in this field for the students.

SKILL SET

Web Development: HTML, CSS, JS, PHP, Vue.js, Bootstrap, wordpress, MySQL DB Software Development: C++, JAVA, Python, C# and ASP.NET MVC, Software Testing.

BACHELOR OF VOCATION- TTM (BVOC-TTM)

Department of Bachelors of Vocation- Travel & Tourism Management, prepares students for a promising career in the field of Travel and Tourism, Hospitality sector and encourages Travel Entrepreneurship. The program is a MHRD -UGC sanctioned Vocational degree, which has been aligned with the National Skills Qualification framework (NSQF) guidelines and National Occupational Standards (NOS) of the Tourism and Hospitality Skill Sector.

STUDENT PROFILE

Jai Hind College's Bachelor of Vocation-TTM program comprises a fruitful batch of 53 students.

SUBJECTS

To prepare work ready graduates with relevant knowledge and quality skill training in Travel and Tourism and allied sectors, students study MICE, E-Ticketing, Destination planning, Adventure tourism, multi-media and many more.

SESSIONS ATTENDED

Students attend sessions on Eco Tourism, Sports Tourism, Destination Training on different places, etc.

CO-CURRICULARS

World Tourism Day, Symposium, Voyage Fest, Musafir Magazine, Annual Intercollegiate Student's Seminar, Sports events for World Tourism Day are some of the events that the students work towards.

INTERSHIPS

MTDC, Thomas Cook, Veena World, T2 GVK, Kesari Travels, Sterling Holidays, Pugmarks, Kuoni Travels, Mercury Travels, Myrsa, Active Holidays are few companies where students have interned.

ADD. COURSES

Adventure Tourism, Cruise Tourism, Wine Tourism, Travel Photography, GDS (Global Distribution System) Training are organised for the students.

SKILL SET

Itinerary designing, Destination planning, Tourism Marketing, Travel Agency Management, Destination management, Digital marketing are skills that Travel and Tourism students possess.